A. M. GRISCOM WAS A SUICIDE

Jumped Overboard From Steamer Minnetonka on March 19-Mental ly Unbalanced?

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, March 21.-Andrew M. Griscom, of Philadelphia, who disappeared from Philadelphia several weeks ago, and was supposed to be in Europe, committed suicide on March 19 by jumping overboard at sea from the steamer Minnetenka.

Griscom sailed on the Minnetonka from London for this city. When he jumped overboard the steamer was stopped and a boat was lowered but he could not be found. It is supposed that he was temporarily unbalanced mentally. Griscom was a member of a well known Philadelphia family.

When Griscom disappeared from Philadelphia it was reported that he had eloped with a young woman and that both of them had gone to Europe. Griscon, s mother, however, denied it. News of his suicide was made public when the Minnetonka reached this port today.

With Howard Kyle, who has been especially engaged for one part of Henri Beanclere, the British diplomat she will be seen in the revival of "Diplomacy" at the Academy of Music Priday night.

"Captain Barrington."

The attraction at the Academy Satureay matince and night will be Henri Gressitt's magnificent production of Capain Barrington." a success produced in New York last season. The star of the company is William Bramwell, who has played only in New York for the last three years. Mr. Bramwell has had rather an eventful career. Born in New York, the son of a Methodist clergyman, he was educated in the Rechester University, and first studied theology, but later began the study of law and was admitted to the bar. But, in the actor's own words, another voice from within was persistently ealling, and a little later he made his debut in Wushington as leading man in a Greek play.

Arthur Dunn Coming.

The advance sale at the Academy for the appearance of Arthur Dunn in "The Runaway s" has started briskly and all indications point to a good house. This was one of the greatest successes of last season, when the pretty extravaganza played here and proved to be a magnificent productionwith the richest kind of stage settings and beautiful gowns and costumes. The claim that the New York production would be presented in its entirety was fulfilled and the change from see ing the usual run of inferior companies resenting metropolitan successes, to witnessing the originial company was most pleasing surprise for the local theatregoer.

This year there will be presented a marvelous new feature in the now-famous Pony ballet in sensational radring dances. The use of radium as a neans of illumination is the greatest discovery of modern stage craft, and the radium ballet has proven the most isionishing feature of recent years.
